SORBY ADAMS JUTLAND 2022 BAROSSA GRENACHE SHIRAZ MOURVEDRE (GSM)

The Barossa is Australia's most famous wine region. Thankfully, it has also been my home since 1980 where I am fortunate to be amongst an amazing group of people – winemakers, vigneron, and of course friends.

The Hundred of Jutland is a hundred of the County of Sturt in South Australia within the Barossa, on the east Mount Lofty Ranges foothills. Rich Barossa heritage where our grapes are sourced for this supple and sophisticated wine.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

GI - Sourced from the multi-generational Riebke family vineyard in the Ebenezer district of Barossa, vines dating 130+ years old. Blend - 35% Grenache, 34% Shiraz, 31% Mourvèdre. Colour - Dark cherry red with plum hue. Aroma - Redcurrant and strawberries with cream aromas, have a hint of violets on the nose. Palate - The harmonious palate blends the three varieties together with flavours of plum, strawberries and dark chocolate. Velvet tannins are soft and elegant. Oak - 24 months, French Oak. 4-year air dried. Francois Frere and Taransaud Coopers. Cellar - Drink now to 2029.
