SORBY ADAMS MARGRET 2024 EDEN VALLEY PINOT GRIGIO

The Barossa is Australia's most famous wine region. Thankfully, it has also been my home since 1980 where I am fortunate to be amongst an amazing group of people – winemakers, vigneron, and of course friends.

Margret was my mother and this wine with its nashi pear, hints of stone fruits and zesty green apple is made in memory of mum's home-made baked apple pie on a Sunday afternoon.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

Colour - Bright straw with green grey edges. Aroma - Elegantly expressed, the inviting bouquet shows rock melon and mandarins with Jasmine and fresh pear.

Palate - A juicy palate, finely textured with citrus and pome fruits. Beautifully rounded, offering flowing mouthfeel and bright fruit flavours. Serve chilled to enjoy its refreshment. Cellar - At its best: now to 2026. Fruit - Pinot Grigio (aka Pinot Gris) sourced from the Eden Valley, Barossa.

ANALYSIS

Alcohol: 12.5% | Acidity: 5.29 g/L | pH: 3.26 | G&F: 4.38 g/L (dry)

FOOD PAIRING

An adaptable wine that is suited as an aperitif or with roast chicken, right through to desserts, like mum's apple pie.
